"In numerology, all the numbers are considered to vibrate with certain frequency, pretty much like sub atomic particles in our body. When numbers come together, the vibrations interact with each other. If the interaction is constructive, the results are good. If the interaction is destructive, the outcomes are negative. Each number from 1 to 9 has unique properties. Numbers 11 and 22 are considered as master numbers. We will learn about master numbers in detail later. There is a numerical value attached to a person's name and his or her date of birth and these values are unique. These numbers influence the life of the person and the course of decision making."
