Second Chance Horses is a collection of true stories reflecting the amazing things ex-racehorses can accomplish once they are re-trained for new careers. From serving as mounted police horses to working in human therapy programs to competing on the Olympic level, ex-racehorses are proving there is plenty of life after the track. Second Chance Horses is the only book that chronicles a dozen horses in their journeys from the racetrack to new careers and the obstacles they overcame to succeed in their new roles.
