SIMON PETER: His Life and Works (Peter and Paul: Apostles Book 1) Jerry Haughton

Simon Peter became the leader of the Twelve Disciples. As the reader studies his interactions with Jesus, the other apostles, and Jewish authorities s/he realizes that Peter's personality had a major part in his leadership role. Here is a series of 30 studies that show how an ordinary man became a spiritual giant. They can serve as daily devotions for a month or a series of sermons for 7 months. They are not academic; but they are very biblical and practical. The author draws from his many years of experience as a Christian, a pastor, and a professor to make applications to the life situations of modern Christians.
