Yellow Pages advertising is expensive for any business. But it does deliver cash-in-hand buyers straight to your door.

For those who do it the right way -- a single ad in one Yellow Pages directory can pay off in spades and make a huge difference to their bottom line. But you need to know what you're doing... or you could end up wasting a whole lot of money and getting little -- or NOTHING -- in return.

Your advertising is most effective when you take total responsibility for your own ad copy and design -- instead of leaving up to the Yellow Pages sales guy. If you do that - you'll get the same, less-than-stellar advertising they serve up to the unsuspecting and unaware.

It used to be that -- for most businesses -- a Yellow Pages advert was a "must". Though the growth of the Internet has changed things dramatically, the Yellow Pages is still a viable means of attracting new prospects, customers, and cash flow for many types of business.

But you'll get the greatest return on your advertising dollars when you apply a few basic concepts -- like those revealed in Yellow Pages Success Secrets. Armed with this knowledge, you'll no longer feel like "David" up against "Goliath" whenever you deal with anyone from the Yellow Pages.

Know what you want from your advertising and shape it in a way that makes you a market favorite. These tips, tactics and techniques will go a long way towards making your Yellow Pages advertising deliver what you most want -- a steady stream of new business.
