Paul's wife is convinced his lack of sexual interest means he's gay. Without his consent she admits him to a medical clinic with a pioneering treatment program. He awakes and find himself strapped to a hospital bed where he is informed about the changes that will be taking place to his body as a result of the implant. The implant will turn him into a man craving monster, while at the same time feminizing him. Ultimately, there will be no release from his constant craving for hot, sticky, man juice.
