The London Train Tessa Hadley

"Hadley is a lovely, subtly teasing writer." —New York Times Book Review

Long-listed for the Orange Prize

Two lives, stretched between two cities, converge in a chance meeting with immediate and far-reaching consequences in this compelling, sophisticated tale from acclaimed New Yorker writer Tessa Hadley, author of Accidents in the Home and The Master Bedroom. As father struggles to reestablish a relationship with his estranged daughter in London, surrendering himself to an underground life of illegal squats and counterculture friendships, a wife decides she must flee her suffocating marriage to return to Wales, where in Cardiff she may rediscover the passions that once fueled her life. Embracing change and facing loss, in a story evocative of Alice Munro's Runaway and Julia Glass' I See You Everywhere, Hadley's powerful characters illuminate the furthest reaches of love, hope, and determination.
