Learn why and how variety, balance, and calcium are the cornerstones to your dog's good health, and some of the basics (and myths) of a home-prepared diet.

Good nutrition is essential to your dog's health - and a homemade diet can be the best provider. Digestive disorders, skin problems, allergies, arthritis – these are just some of the conditions that can be caused by the hormones, antibiotics and artificial colors and preservatives present in many commercial dog foods.

In order to ensure that your dog is receiving all the necessary nutrients she needs, while eliminating harmful ingredients, home-prepared food is your best option (and it's not as complicated as you think).
