You are tapped to compete in the Swiss road race of your dreams. Even better, your cousin agreed to lend you his beloved favorite car. The winnings are life-changing, even in second place! But before the games can begin, you receive an offer from a gambling syndicate. They know you're a good driver, and they know you'd like to win some money. They offer you even more than the prize winnings if you'll agree to throw the race. What should you do? How can you even compete when you know people like this are working behind the scenes?
