Lil Wayne - Biography of a Superstar Rap Artist Joshua Cumby

He proclaims it with a tattoo on his face, "I am Music," so confidence is not something Lil Wayne, Dwayne Michael Carter, Jr., is lacking. He actually knows little else but being on stage and performing. He was signed by Cash Money Records at the age of 12 and was their youngest artist. As of this writing he's released a total nine albums, reaching Platinum status, sold millions of downloads and ringtones through iTunes and other channels, has won numerous awards and continues to appear on the top of the charts when releasing new material.

Arguably, Lil Wayne is his generations Tupac in regards to fame, but with less formidable, social consciousness and community activism in his lyrics.

This is a relatively short biography about one of today's biggest rap stars and cross-over entertainer into Pop Culture. If you thrive or at least have an interest in rap music, controversy and the rich and famous, you'll enjoy Lil Wayne's Biography.
