The Nature of the Atonement John McLeod Campbell, J. McLeod Campbell

J. McLeod Campbell is now recognized as one of the greatest Scottish theologians of the nineteenth century, primarily because of his book The Nature of the Atonement (1856). Made available again here, complete with a substantial introduction by James B. Torrance, this classic work's erudition and theological emphasis on the doctrines of universal atonement and assurance will speak to a new generation of scholars, pastors, students, and general readers.
