“What’s a good girl like you doing somewhere so bad?” His smooth voice made me shiver even before I turned to see his muscled body again.

Tianna hates working for her miserly boss, but it pays the bills. When he sends her out to collect a debt from the a member of the Rattlesnake Motorcycle Club, she starts wondering whether the risk is worth the reward. The bikers look at her lush body like they want to eat her up.

Then she meets Thrash. White hot and ready to rumble, he's everything she's been looking for since her last dull relationship. The only problem is, Tianna is good girl and she's not ready for a bad man like Thrash to take her hard and without protection.

But to fulfill their deepest, darkest desires, even good girls have to go bad every once and awhile...
